What is Titusville's BR&E Program?

Simply stated - Titusville's BR&E Program is designed with you and your business in mind. The staff of Titusville's Office of Economic Development strive to be your single point of contact for all City-related questions and concerns. We are here to serve as your liaison to all City offices and departments.

We're here to help

As your point of contact, the City of Titusville, Economic Development staff can assist in establishing clear and direct lines of communication between local business leaders and policy makers.

We are here to help, but we can't do so if we are not made aware of a problem or concern. So reach out, and let us know what's happening.

Partnerships & collaboration

The foundation of a robust business retention and expansion program is built on relationships.

Titusville's Office of Economic Development staff will help you to identify a wide array of suitable partners, such as other governmental or quasi-governmental entities that provide loans or grants, such as the North Brevard Economic Development Zone, the Economic Development Commission of Florida's Space Coast, and Enterprise Florida Inc.
