Workers in the regional labor force (Palm Bay–Melbourne–Titusville MSA, Feb 2025)

- Strong presence of engineers, technicians, machinists, and skilled trades
- Low turnover and high workforce stability
- Employees who live here, work here, and stay here

Built-In Talent Pipelines That Work

We don't wait for talent to show up — we help train it. Our education and workforce programs are directly aligned with the needs of employers across multiple sectors.

- Eastern Florida State College with career-focused programs
- Industry-driven training in aerospace, defense, logistics, and advanced manufacturing
- Apprenticeship and certificate programs tailored to employer demand
- Partnerships between educators, employers, and workforce boards

Recruit and Retain Without the Big-City Headache

Titusville makes it easier to attract talent and even easier to keep it. Our cost of living, lifestyle, and sense of community help businesses hold onto great people.

- Affordable housing options that appeal to young professionals and families

- Short commutes and high quality of life
- Recreational amenities that support wellness and retention
- A community people are proud to call home

Support That Helps You Hire With Confidence

We know that workforce is make-or-break. That's why we work with you to ensure access to the people and programs that fuel your success.

- Access to workforce boards, recruitment partners, and training resources
- Incentives and support for job creation and hiring
- City leadership that helps connect you to the right talent and partners
- Proactive coordination with employers throughout the hiring process

Let's Connect You With the Team That Powers Progress. Titusville is ready to support your workforce needs — today and into the future.
